Dr. Robert Ley, Leader of Nazi Labor Front, Commits Suicide in His Jail Cell at Nuernberg

HANGS SELF IN CELL

One of Hitler's Most Powerful Lieutenants Hangs Himself with GI Towel Torn into Strips

By GEORGE TUCKER

NUERNBERG, Germany, Friday, Oct. 26 (AP)—Dr. Robert Ley, leader of the Nazi labor front, hanged himself last night with a noose fashioned from strips of a GI towel in the Nuernberg jail cell where he awaited trial as a major war criminal. He was pronounced dead at 8:10 p. m. (2:10 p. m. EST) just twenty-two days before he and twenty-two other high-ranking Nazi war criminals were to go on trial for their part in the Nazi regime.

Ley, who had alternated between periods of black and white, depression and since his capture last May, had been in a messy and determined state in what was apparently a long and carefully planned suicide.

He ripped an American army towel into strips, tied the strips together and soaked the knots in water. He kept them from slipping. Then he tied one end to the plumbing, fixed his throat with bits of his underware and after slipping on some around his neck, sat on the toilet seat and strangled himself to death.

Guard Becomes Suspicious
The guard who peeked into Ley's cell every thirty seconds could see the prisoner's knees as he sat on the toilet. He became suspicious on the Nazi chief did not move for two and a half minutes and heard the cell.

It was too late. The 55-year-old was cut down and artificial respiration administered by prison doctors who pronounced Ley dead. A coronial failed to have the effect.

Ley, a lover of luxurious and vicious living, died in a bare prison cell amid grim surroundings in sharp contrast to the life he led as one of Hitler's labor boss who was "strength through joy."

His official announcement of the death was made by Prison Commandant Col. B. C. Andrus, Denver, said:

"The sentinel on the post guard-Ley and three adjacent cells while only his knees could be seen through the cell door."

On completion of four rounds, he made the fifth check on that in two and a half minutes, he concluded that the prisoner had been sitting there too long. Coincidentally the corporal of the guard along checking on the turning of eyeglasses which were taken to the prisoner at night.

Tried To Take Poison
The sentinel called the prisoner name and received no answer. He entered the cell and discovered Ley was on the toilet seat. His shirt was stuffed with rags torn from his underdrawers.

Around his neck was the hem of a towel fastened to the edge of the flush pipe of the toilet. The guard called the prisoner officer, Jaul H. Graven, Madison, Wis., and the prisoner down."

German prisoner of war doctor Col. Rene Juhl, chief of the medical service in the prison, tried to give the one-time Nazi official all efforts failed.

Ley was captured by the United States One Hundred First Airborne near Berchtesgaden, acting as a tip of the German underground.

He had a four-day growth of hair and said he was "Dr. Distelmeyer." When United States counterintelligence officers asked him to question him he reached for a pistol and attempted to swallow its contents, but the intelligence men were too quick for him and he died the poison from his hand.

He was among the twenty-four ranking Nazis, including Hermann Goering and Rudolf Hess, who were indicted last October 18 by the Nuremberg military tribunal.

Germany's "Saint" Hanged SS Troops

By JAMES D. WHITE

Associated Press Staff Writer
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25 (AP)—Nothing is simple in the Dutch East Indies, and it is getting less so daily.

The equatorial sun is hot right now, but political tempers seem to have cooled to the extent that the Indonesian leaders trying to wrangle independence for 70,000,000 Indonesians now talk of mediation as desirable.

They continue to make frightful noises, however, about the bloodshed which will follow if the Dutch send in any more troops.

In their bid for Allied mediation, the Indonesians say they would welcome the efforts of American, Chinese and Russian officials. There is no indication as to why they omitted mentioning the British.

British troops went into the country, following Japan's collapse, under the Allied arrangement whereby that part of the Southwest Pacific which had been under Gen. MacArthur's command was handed over to Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten.

No Dutchman has said so publicly, but privately some Dutch say they think things might have developed differently otherwise. They point out that whereas Mountbatten re-occupied the British Malayan bastion of Singapore with an unopposed show of force, he sent forces to both French Indo-China and the Dutch East Indies because the French and the Dutch didn't have the shipping to get their own troops back fast enough) and that these British forces were unable to stop outbreaks of native violence against the return of their former masters.

Truman Is Told Full Employment Has Slim Chance Of Becoming Law

President Renews Support for Measure after Receiving Report from Two Congressmen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Truman renewed and emphasized his support for the "Full Employment" bill today after hearing from two influential congressmen that it would be hard to pass the measure.

He got his report from Chairman Manasco (D-Ala.) and Rep. Whittington (D-Miss.), of the House Expenditures committee.

He had called the two congressmen in to talk over the administration bill, which has been bogged down since the Senate passed it in amended form a month ago.

At a news conference later, Mr. Truman told reporters he is very anxious that the measure be brought out of committee and passed as soon as possible. He said he is for it with everything he has.

Compromise Bill Is Likely
In response to a query, he said the congressmen hadn't told him it would be impossible to pass the bill without amendments; they told him it would be difficult.

After visiting the White House, Manasco and Whittington told newsmen they had advised the president they will try to speed some type of legislation to help provide jobs for all.

They reported, however, that there is little chance for passage of the measure requested by Mr. Truman, which states that all able-bodied Americans wanting work are entitled to an opportunity for employment.

Questioned by a reporter, neither Whittington nor Manasco would say specifically that a compromise bill is in the making. The prospect of such a move appeared likely, however, on the basis of their comments.

Manasco declared: "Mr. Truman was very anxious to get the bill approved. But I told him I could not support legislation giving assurance of a job for everyone."

Whittington said: "I told him the pending measure would require a lot of amending."

"Also, I said that either by reorganization, or under his reorganization powers expected to be granted soon, he could improve the government's statistical setup in order to provide the figures needed to plan for a program of full employment."

Manasco's reference to the statistical studies was in connection with the plans for an annual "job budget" on which to base plans for additional employment needed.

Whittington said: "I hope he will be able to approve some type of a constructive employment bill, but it will not be the one pending before the committee. We cannot base an employment program on the deficit spending theory."

Legislative Council Would End Liquor Law Study

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 25 (AP)—Gov. O'Connor was informed today by the Legislative Council that "no sufficient reason" had been found for further study of the state's liquor laws.

Sen. James J. Lindsay, chairman of the council, wrote the governor that it would be unnecessary for the governor to appoint a special committee to consider the laws relating to alcoholic beverages.

The letter was taken as definite rejection of various proposals made by the grand jury, the police commissioner and others for earlier closing hours and bans on Sunday liquor sales.

Penicillin Discoverer Receives Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 25 (AP)—Sir Alexander Fleming, of London University, discoverer of penicillin, together with two of his co-workers in penicillin research, were awarded the 1945 Nobel prize for physiology and medicine. It was officially announced tonight.

No Dutchman has said so publicly, but privately some Dutch say they think things might have developed differently otherwise. They point out that whereas Mountbatten re-occupied the British Malayan bastion of Singapore with an unopposed show of force, he sent forces to both French Indo-China and the Dutch East Indies because the French and the Dutch didn't have the shipping to get their own troops back fast enough) and that these British forces were unable to stop outbreaks of native violence against the return of their former masters.

TSINGTAO WELCOMES U. S. MARINES

PRACTICALLY EVERY RESIDENT of Tsingtao, China, turns out to welcome the arriving United States Sixth Marine Battalion as its veteran fighters rode into the city atop Sherman tanks and other vehicles. Union Board Favors Strike Against Montgomery Ward

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—The general executive board of the United Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employees of America, CIO, voted unanimously today to call a nationwide strike "at the most opportune time" against Montgomery Ward and Company, Samuel Wolchok, president of the union, said.

Wolchok, who also is chairman of the union's executive board, told a news conference after the meeting of the board that the strike would affect 75,000 employees in 650 retail stores and nine mail order houses of the company.

In a statement he said: "Our board has met and has decided to call a strike. The vote was unanimous by the twenty-three members. The time for calling the strike has been placed in my hands. I will call it at the most opportune time for the situation."

"In the public interest," he added, the union would "first exhaust the processes of negotiation and mediation. We are willing and offer to submit all issues to arbitration."

"Failing which, the union will not discourage its members from ceasing work until issues are resolved and the increasing attempts of an industrial tyrant to smash our union are defeated."

Wolchok charged that Sewell L. Avery, chairman of the Montgomery Ward board of directors was "an industrial tyrant" and had "distorted the facts" in connection with the plans for an annual "job budget" on which to base plans for additional employment needed.

Whittington said: "I hope he will be able to approve some type of a constructive employment bill, but it will not be the one pending before the committee. We cannot base an employment program on the deficit spending theory."

Butter Will Drop To Eight Points Per Pound Sunday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Butter, margarine, lard, shortening and oils go down to eight points a pound Sunday.

The OPA, announcing this reduction from twelve points, said also that current ration values will be maintained through December 1 on the better cuts of beef, veal and lamb and on all lean pork.

All meats now ration-free will continue so during November. The only revision of the meat point chart is assignment of lower ration values for six fat pork cuts and barbecued pork. These cuts range from two to four points a pound.

OPA Administrator Chester Bowles said the point reduction for butter and other fats and oils are due to improved supply.

Bowles reported that the over-all meat supply next month is expected to be about one half of one per cent less than in October.

"Up to this time, therefore, meat supplies do not permit the end of rationing," Bowles said.

Because of foreign requirements, the domestic supply of beef will be down about thirteen per cent in November, veal about nineteen per cent and lamb and mutton about twenty-two per cent.

Offsetting these declines, the heavy seasonal run of hogs to market is expected to boost the pork supply by about forty-one per cent.

An Agriculture department spokesman said this country's foreign commitments on meat have not been met in full this month, and that this will require heavier shipment in November than had been planned.

The new series of five stamps becoming valid November 1 for meats and fats includes the last four red stamps—W1, X1, Y1, and Z1—and one green stamp—N8—in Ration Book Four.

In December, if meat rationing continues, five more green stamps will be validated, OPA said.

President Still Plans To Make Southern Trip

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Truman said today that he has not cancelled a projected southern trip early next month, but that all of his scheduled travels for November must be considered tentative.

The president was asked at his news conference about reports that he might call off contemplated visits to North Carolina and Georgia November 2-4.

Asked if a reported plan to visit Waco, Tex., December 5 also is tentative, he replied that it was but that he was inclined to go.

Question of Jap Monopolies Fails To Bring Answer From Nipponese

MacArthur, on Oct. 11, Urged Rapid Revision of Zaibatsu; Konoye May Relinquish Title

TOKYO, Friday, Oct. 26 (AP)—Gen. MacArthur, who urged Japan's premier two weeks ago to break up "rapidly" the multimillion dollar family monopolies, pointedly stated today the Japanese government has not communicated with him on "any phase" of the question.

In an unusual move, headquarters authorized this statement: "No official communication has been received by supreme headquarters of the Allied powers from the Imperial Japanese government on any phase of the Zaibatsu (big families) question. Any statement to the effect that SCAP (supreme commander of the Allied powers) has accepted or rejected any communication on this question is false."

High officials of two of the biggest monopolies, Mitsubishi and Fuyo, said this week reported voluntary moves toward partial dissolution of their huge, interlocking companies which played major roles in the war.

A Mitsubishi spokesman said the company had not communicated either with the Japanese government or Allied headquarters, but a Mitsubishi spokesman said American occupation authorities and officials in Washington had been advised fully on the discussions.

MacArthur on October 11 laid down a five-point program to Premier Hidekoto, one of which was "drastic revision of Zaibatsu."

"I expect you to institute them as rapidly as they can be assimilated," MacArthur said after presenting his recommendations.

Konoye May Yield Title
Prince Fumimaro Konoye was reported to be planning to relinquish his noble title in an apparent bid for political preference in a Japan newly stripped of her diplomatic tentacles and writhing in confusion under American occupation.

Post-mortems on loss of the war continued, with Konoye said to be intending voluntarily to assume responsibility for a leading role in the period of aggression. The admiral who launched the Pearl Harbor attack contended it had delayed his country's inevitable defeat.

The brooding, heavy-lidded mystic who was premier when Japan attacked China in 1937 and again just before Pearl Harbor, was declared by the Domei agency to be preparing to retire from the imperial court, yield all his titles and prerogatives and start a new political career as a commoner.

Step Is Postponed
The Domei report said that Konoye disclosed his intentions to Marquis Koichi Kido, lord keeper of the privy seal, who persuaded Konoye to postpone the step because he presently was working on a proposed revision of the constitution.

Konoye himself said Sunday that Gen. MacArthur, supreme Allied commander, had suggested that he head a liberal political movement and revamp the constitution.

While Konoye said he had given no definite answer to Japanese who also had asked him to head a new political party, the Domei report—if accurate—would indicate that he had decided to go with the democratic tide.

While politics thus boiled, MacArthur in an order without precedent in modern history, ordered Japan to transfer all her diplomatic and consular properties and archives (Continued on Page 14, Col. 4)

Truman Says He Needs Gen. George Marshall As Chief of Staff

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Truman said today he needs Gen. George C. Marshall as chief of staff.

The comment raised a big question mark over the issue whether the general will achieve his known desire to turn in his five-star uniform and retire.

Mr. Truman made his remarks at a news conference. He was commenting on a front page Washington Post editorial suggesting that Marshall, who reached retirement age of 64 last December 31, be placed in charge of the proposed universal military training program.

President Will Announce New Wage-Price Policy Next Week; Trouble Shooter Is Appointed

TRUMAN'S NEW AIDE

MOVING TO CURB the postwar strike wave, President Truman yesterday appointed Dr. John R. Steelman, above, as his special assistant to be used in any capacity he saw fit.

Further, the president said Reconversion Director John W. Snyder, on whom he must chiefly depend for formulation of a wage-price policy, was not resigning, as had been rumored.

Pre-conference Parley
Mr. Truman also said he would talk with all thirty-nine of the participants in the labor-management conference before it opens November 5. Three represent the public and won't vote. There will be eighteen voting delegates from the ranks of labor and eighteen from management. Included in the labor delegation is John L. Lewis, and Mr. Truman said he would invite the United Mine Workers president to the White House in advance of the conference, along with the others.

Lewis has not visited the White House since December, 1941. He became a bitter critic of the late President Roosevelt, with whom he once had been friendly.

The conference agenda was drawn up by a committee representing labor, management and government. It made no provision for machinery to take the place of the War Labor Board, which will be liquidated before January 1. The president did not suggest any substitute at his news conference, leading to the belief that either he or Secretary of Labor, Charles C. Smith, might propose some dispute machinery at the opening of the meetings.

Appointment Causes Speculation
Steelman's appointment led to immediate speculation over Schweinebach's future role in attempting settlement of labor disputes. The latter's personal intervention in the oil and coal strikes failed to bring about settlement. The navy seized the strike-bound oil plants, and Lewis himself called the continuous coal strikes off after Schweinebach's conferences of operators and miners were suspended indefinitely in apparent deadlock.

The four principles in the arrangements for the labor management meetings—sent Mr. Truman a joint letter which he made public. It stated that the conference "will place a significant milestone in the history of the American system of free, private enterprise."

It is equally obvious, they said, "that the establishment of long-range and agreed-upon policies designed to reduce industrial disagreements."

Charles Houck, Jr., Is Killed by Auto

ROCKVILLE, Md., Oct. 25 (AP)—An automobile struck and killed Charles S. Houck, Jr., Walkersville, former member of the Maryland House of Delegates and past commander of the state American Legion, early today as he was changing a tire on his automobile seven miles west of Rockville.

Houck, 47, was on his way home with his wife and another couple from a dinner party at the home of Joseph Cantrell, Chevy Chase, present state Legion commander, at the time he was killed.

E. Austin James, Frederick, who was grazed by the car, said Houck was jacking up the automobile when he was hit and the body thrown about thirty feet and against a tree trunk. Mrs. Houck and Mrs. James were inside the car.

Montgomery county police said they had arrested Leslie Doody, 17, Gettysburg, Pa., on a charge of reckless driving and had released him on his personal bond.

Houck served in the Maryland House of Delegates from 1937 to 1942 and during much of that time was chairman of the Frederick county delegation.

He was a native of Frederick county, was educated in his public schools and at Gettysburg college.

During his early career, Houck was employed on the sports staff of the Baltimore Evening Sun and as a reporter and acting city editor on the Frederick Post.

Military Training Hearings Open Nov. 8; OPA Is Raked over Coals

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Congress is going to dip into that business of a year's military training for Junior in a couple of weeks.

President Truman wants the training of every American youth. The House Military committee decided today to begin hearings on it Nov. 8.

The same committee has just about finished work on an atomic energy bill. The president wants that, too.

But the House is warming up for a scrap next week. Particularly over a committee decision that Congress can't say "no" if the president decides to let other countries in on atomic secrets. Mr. Truman has said he won't share the industrial know-how.

Plenty was going on under the Capitol dome. Even though the Sen-

Franksters Warned

With more than the average amount of pre-Halloween vandalism occurring in Oakland, Mayor Law-ence M. Praley this morning issued a warning that destruction of property, damage to automobiles and auto tires, use of soap and other things to damage automobiles and properties, would not be tolerated and that offenders would be prosecuted.

He called attention to the fact that some group had gone so far as to tamper with a mail storage box on Second street, which is a federal offense and would not be treated lightly. Breaking of light bulbs was another offense, he said, that would cause additional trouble to young people, if caught.

He declared the firemen were arranging the Halloween celebration to give the young people an outlet for their energies, and that these destructive tendencies were not going to be allowed. Extra policemen are being assigned.

A detailed list of prizes including many cash awards was announced by the Halloween committee of the Oakland Fire Department sponsoring the celebration in Oakland next Wednesday evening.

Around 100 awards are planned for winners in the parade, scheduled for 7 p. m. The parade will form on Oak street, east of Fourth, and after traveling over the business section of town, will conclude on Second street, between Green and Alder streets, where prizes will be awarded. Answers Sought On Problems Of Love Affairs

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I'm 21 years old and employed in a real estate office, and as my father passed away five years ago,
I'm supporting mother.

I've been going with a certain man who recently joined our firm staff, having been discharged from the service. Although he has declared his love for me, he'll never take me where I can meet his friends. We just go for drives in his car. His mother is a great society woman and when he comes to see me, he doesn't tell her, but leads her to believe he's going elsewhere. This has hurt me terribly.

My family is highly respectable, and the only difference in our families is that his has more money than we do.

PERPLEXED

It would seem impossible for you to find happiness in a friendship where the young man plays his part with such consciousness of a higher social position. You are so honest and generous to take care of your mother that you deserve a friend of a better quality than this boy could be.

A marriage with someone who regards you as an inferior would never be happy.

Husband and His Friends

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I'm 28 years of age and have been married five years. We have a little son of one year. Since we've had the baby, my husband doesn't take me out any more, and instead spends his day off with friends while I'm left at home to "mind the baby." I don't think that's fair, do you? Do you think it's because he doesn't want to be bothered with the baby, or is he getting tired of me?

Right now we are living with some friends, and as they are both employed, I have the use of the kitchen. But I think it would be much nicer if we had our own apartment or a little home in the suburbs. What is your suggestion?

YOUNG MATRON

You have my deepest sympathy in your problem, which is very real.
Almost any man would be willing to stay at home and mind the baby occasionally, so that his wife would have a chance to visit with friends or go to a movie with them. "All work and no play" is as bad for Jill as it is for Jack.

Talk it over with your husband.
It might be a good plan to rent a small apartment where you can be by yourselves. The experiment would be worth trying when it's the case of a marriage failing and a little child not having the right sort of home in which to grow up.

Wants Home for Daughter

Dear Miss Fairfax:
While I was still the wife of another man, but from whom I was separated, I went out occasionally with a young man. And when I obtained my divorce I started going "steady." He wanted me to marry him as soon as my divorce would be final, but now he never says a word about marriage. We've been going together two years.
I never go out with other men, so that isn't the reason. I am so anxious to make a real home for my little daughter, who is eight years old, but how can I ask my friend what he really intends to do? He is well able to take care of my little daughter and me.

SALLY H.

When a man devotes himself exclusively to a woman for two years, and she doesn't go out with anyone else, she is certainly entitled to know where she stands. I've had heart-breaking letters from women who have been true to such men, and when time has robbed them of youth and good looks, their fiancés have deserted them for someone younger and more attractive.
I think you are certainly entitled to know his intentions, and I should not hesitate to ask him.

Bethlehem Steel was off 1/4 point at 93 1/2 but directors after the close, voted the usual $1.50 dividends and reported net for the third quarter of $2.05 a share versus $1.67 in the like 1944 period and

WITCH 'N GOBLIN TIME FOR SMALL-FRY

PUNKIN' CUP CAKES . . . Halloween party treat to please the kiddies.

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Every child should either give or get a party at Halloween. It's one of the best children's holidays and deserving of celebration by everybody.

Have all the traditional games any children's Halloween party— all the not-too-scary ghostly as you can dream up.

The best place to have a good Halloween party is in the cellar. Nothing can be hurt. Then you can serve the food respectfully in the dining room, or on boards or saw-horses in the cellar, whichever you choose.

In my opinion, it's better to have a eating part of the party in the dining room. High spirits may seem to indicate a continuation of hilarious goings-on at the table. This is never really a good idea, from anybody's point of view. If you change the locale of the party, you may also change the mood—not to one of depression, to be sure, but perhaps to a slightly calmer behavior. Serving the food upstairs also lets you decorate the table ahead of time.

Make the party room simple. For young children an afternoon party can be so arranged that refreshments constitute supper. Otherwise, appetites are spoiled. For the slightly older group who may have an early evening party you can confine yourself to just sweets without upsetting any kind of schedule.

Punkin' Cup Cakes
1 1/2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons sugar
6 tablespoons vitaminized margarine
6 tablespoons light molasses
6 tablespoons corn syrup
2 eggs
1/2 cup cooked, strained, pumpkin
2 tablespoons sour milk

Sift, measure flour and resift with baking powder, soda, spices, salt and sugar. Cream vitaminized margarine with molasses. Beat eggs lightly with syrup. Add creamed mixture to egg mixture. Add pumpkin and flour. Add milk. Stir all together until batter looks creamy. Fill well-greased, fluted, round-bottomed muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in moderately hot oven (375°) twenty-five to thirty minutes. Cool. Put cakes together, top to top, with a layer of orange marmalade, jam or mincemeat in between. Put a teaspoon of thin confectioner's sugar frosting on top of each and let it run down over the "punkin." Stick small candle in top of each. This makes eighteen cup cakes, or 9 whole pumpkins.

Cumberland To Be Given Consideration in Choice Of Future Hospital Sites

Lt. Col. Harry E. Brown, acting director of hospitalization service, Veterans Administration, informed Mayor Thomas S. Post in a letter received yesterday that if the administration's studies show a need for additional veterans' hospitals in Maryland, Cumberland will be given "careful consideration" when sites for the hospitals are selected. The Associated Press reports Tuesday that President Truman has designated Baltimore as the site of a 500-bed tuberculosis hospital. The hospital was chosen, Mayor Post had asked the Veterans Administration to consider Cumberland as a possible site for the institution. —Forest fire sometimes travel faster than deer can run.

Social Security Is Termed Basic Pattern of Life

Millhouser Explains Benefits to Cumberland Lions Club Members

Social Security has become a basic pattern in the American way of life, Henry M. Millhouser, manager of the local office of the Social Security board said Wednesday in explaining to members of the Lions club some of the benefits it is possible to receive under the act. Paid benefits under the Social Security program fall into two general categories, primary and survivors benefits, Millhouser said in his address at the weekly luncheon meeting of the club in Central YMCA. Primary benefits, he said, deal with the worker himself. When he reaches the age of 65 he is eligible for benefits, provided he has worked long enough and earned enough money in work covered by Social Security. Should he continue working after reaching his sixty-fifth birthday, he and his employer will continue paying the tax on his wages and his subsequent benefit will probably be higher when he finally retires, Millhouser explained.

Wife Should Apply

When the worker files his application for benefits, his wife should file at the same time so that she will be eligible to a benefit equal to one-half of his, the speaker stated. Should the worker die, his wife would receive a widow's pension which amounts to three-fourths of the wage earner's benefits. In the case of a living worker who reaches age 65 and has minor children, they are eligible for monthly payments until they reach the age of 18.

The usual order of lump sum payments of death benefits is widows, children, parents and those who pay the burial expenses of a wage earner, Millhouser related, adding that to young widows with minor children in their care there are monthly payments. A similar monthly benefit is paid to aged widows, he said, while a widow, under 65 and with no minor children, can receive a lump sum payment and upon reaching age 65 become eligible to receive monthly payments thereafter.

Ladies Night Planned

Chester A. Fisher, program committee chairman of the club, announced that a dinner-dance will be held in conjunction with a ladies night program at the Clary club on November 7. Marty Flynn and his orchestra will furnish music for the dance.

Four new members were inducted into the club yesterday by J. K. Snyder. They are Fletcher Horn, George Ruhl, Herman C. Hoffman and Richard Leonard. Aden Everstine, of the Ridgeley Lions Club, announced that that club will hold a ladies night program Monday at Minke's Cottage inn. A square dance will feature the program.

OPA Lists Changes In Produce Prices

There are six changes in the OPA's community ceiling price list of fresh produce for the week beginning yesterday.

Grapes and Italian Prunes are now coming out of storage and naturally spoilage and storage costs must be taken into consideration in figuring the ceiling price. As a result, all varieties of table grapes, except Concord, have gone up a cent and a half, while Italian prunes have advanced only a half cent. Both of these fruits are community priced at 16½ cents a pound.

The cooler weather of last week retarded ripening of the green snap beans, and consequently, the supply in the markets has dropped off. The ceiling price has advanced a penny to 21 cents a pound.

Lettuce is now being shipped into local markets from California and there is an abundance of small heads, the size that weighs less than ten ounces. The community ceiling price has gone down a cent on these small size heads to 12 cents.

Spinach and sweet potatoes, which are local and nearby crops, are still very plentiful. Their ceiling prices have gone down a cent. Spinach is community priced at 14½ cents a pound; sweet potatoes, 7½ cents a pound.

All the prices printed on the list are the top prices allowed for the fresh fruits and vegetables listed. Consumers are urged to observe these ceiling prices when they market.

Other produce prices are as follows: Apples, Northwestern varieties, 15½ cents a pound, all others 14 cents a pound; Central American bananas, 12 cents a pound; cranberries, 33 cents a pound; white Florida grapefruit eight and a half cents a pound, lemons, 15½ cents a pound; cantaloupe, 10 cents a pound; honeydew melons, 12½ cents a pound; Persian melons, 13 cents a pound; Oregon and Washington pears, 18 cents a pound; carrots, 11 cents a bunch without tops, eight cents a bunch with tops, yellow, under three inches, eight and a half cents a pound and over three inches, seven and a half cents a pound; green peas, 24 cents a pound.

Illness Is Fatal To Romney Soldier

Romney, W. Va., Oct. 25—Military services were held yesterday afternoon in the Methodist church here for Sgt. Paul Parker Harmon, 23, who died in the hospital at Sheppard Field, Texas, last Saturday evening. Interment was in Indian Mound cemetery.

Last Thursday the soldier's wife, Mrs. Ann Harmon, received a message stating that her husband was seriously ill, and together with Sgt. Harmon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Harmon, boarded a plane the same afternoon in Washington for Texas.

Sgt. Harmon, a native of Romney, was a graduate of Romney High School, Class of 1941. He entered the service in June, 1942, and served two years in the Aleutians, returning to the United States last September. He was awaiting discharge at Sheppard Field when taken ill. Before entering service, Sgt. Harmon was employed by the Potomac Light and Power Company. He was a member of the Methodist church and acted as junior steward. Surviving besides his wife and parents are two sisters, Misses Sue Jane and Virginia Helen Harmon of Romney, and a brother, Pvt. Richard Harmon, of Truax Field, Madison, Wis.

Buenos Aires, Argentina, is again permitting the use of fireworks for special celebrations.

Fort Hill School Marks Navy Day

Fort Hill High School celebrated Navy Day at an assembly yesterday with a number of patriotic vocal and instrumental selections.

The a cappella choir, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Pelling, sang, "America The Beautiful," with James Hager as soloist. John Martini, a former member of the choir, who recently returned from duty overseas, sang two solos, "There Is No Greater" and "My Country," accompanied by Mrs. Pelling.

The student body sang service songs, including "The Marines Hymn," "Anchors Aweigh," "Semper Paratus," "Army Air Corps," "Song of the Signal Corps," and the "Caisson Song."

The band, directed by Frank R. Troy, played two selections, "Washington Post March," and "Over There." The opening exercises for the assembly were led by Harold Bishop and Phyllis Burley read Scripture.

COAL STRIPPERS ARE MAKING USE OF BIG VEIN SEAMS

One development of coal stripping in Maryland, according to the monthly report of the State Bureau of Mines, has been the discovery of workable coal seams in places where there was not thought to be workable coal.

Previous underground operations had not gone to the crop, the report adds. Particularly was this the case in the Big Vein, where on account of the "rusty" looking coal, and for other good and sufficient reasons, the miners of 40 and 50 years ago, did not progress beyond a point from 50 to 100 feet from the crop. Much good coal is being located by bulldozers working along the strike of the outcrop of coal seams, particularly the Big Vein.

The only thing usually objectionable about the "rusty" Big Vein, as it is called, is its appearance. As a rule, though not always, some of this rusty coal burns fairly well under boilers and in household heating equipment.

There has been uncovered some oxidized coal, which presents a problem thus far not entirely solved by the coal industry, although some very good technical and scientific men are working on the matter.

The new tipple being erected at the Franklin (Dirty Nine) opening of the George Creek Coal Company, Inc., at the crossing of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad and Georges Creek Boulevard is approaching completion. This structure embodies some new features in the way of erecting tipples and making provisions for loading of coal into trucks.

Stripping operations in the Big Vein near Gilmore are continuing. A part of the output being crushed to stoker size in the tipple recently erected near the Midland school. On some days as many as ten railroad cars are loaded at this point.

The stripping of Big Vein on Pecol Hill is being prosecuted rapidly and at the present rate of mining this virgin piece of Big Vein will soon be exhausted.

Seventeen organizations have accepted invitations to march in the Navy day parade to be held here today, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Chief Boatwain's Mate Bradford Smith, local navy recruiter, said yesterday.

Smith announced that the mayor and city council will review the parade sponsored by the Navy Mothers club, from the North Centre street side of city hall. Four officers of the army, navy and marine corps also will be in the reviewing stand.

Officers Are Veterans
They include William H. Geppert, lieutenant commander, United States Naval Reserve, holder of the pre-Pearl Harbor ribbon, the American theater ribbon, the Pacific area ribbon with three stars and the Philippine Liberation ribbon; Capt. Laurence M. Baisrow, army air forces, officer in charge of the local army recruiting station, a holder of the Purple Heart, European theater ribbon with one star, the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf clusters, the Presidential citation, pre-Pearl Harbor and American theater ribbons; Capt. John T. Fey, marine corps, veteran of twenty-eight months in the South Pacific, holder of the American theater ribbon and Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with two stars, and First Lt. Harry T. McKinley, infantry assistant to Capt. Baisrow at the recruiting station, and a holder of the Purple Heart, European theater ribbon with two stars and the Combat Infantryman's badge. The latter was a prisoner of war for four months after being captured in the battle of the bulge.

Geppert, besides being in the reviewing stand, will give a brief talk on Navy day between the halves of the Allegany-LaSalle football game in Port Hill stadium tonight.

Organizations marching in the parade, which will form at the state armory at 5:30 p. m., include Port Hill high school band, Mountain Chapter No. 166, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Cresaptown Volunteer Fire Department, Fort Cumberland Post, No. 13, American Legion; Sons of the Legion drum corps; Fort Cumberland Squadron, No. 13, Sons of the Legion; Companies C and D, Maryland State Guard; Hyndman high school band; LaVale fire department.

Last night Samuel A. Graham, commander of Fort Cumberland Legion post, asked all Legionnaires and servicemen home on furlough to march in the parade, wearing their uniforms.

The parade will be composed of three divisions with Capt. Thomas P. Conlon as marshal. The first division, which Conlon will head, will form at Salem street. The second division, headed by John Pike, commander of Henry Hart Post, will form on Harrison street, facing Centre street. The third division, headed by Graham, will form on Union street, facing Centre.

Hyndman Man Is Nabbed on Theft, Assault Charges

Bruce G. Ours, Hyndman, Pa., arrested here yesterday morning on a charge of beating Samuel F. Miller, caretaker of Hyndman Firemen's Hall, and stealing $150 from the cash drawer there on October 10, was turned over to Pennsylvania authorities last night.

John D. Margraff, justice of the peace at Hyndman, said Ours overpowered Miller while he was sleeping on a cot in the hall and beat him about the face and body until he became unconscious. Before assaulting Miller, Ours allegedly said to him, "I'm sorry I have to do this."

Margraff said the firemen's hall had been robbed on several occasions in recent months and that no one had been taken into custody in connection with these cases.

Officer L. A. Williams arrested Ours.

M. J. Kuzmanic, a soldier with twenty-one years of army service, was found not guilty in police court yesterday morning of disorderly conduct. The soldier allegedly caused a disturbance at his residence on South Smallwood street when he remonstrated with a landlord when a toilet overflowed. The complaining witness was listed as Rudy Sullivan.

Argel E. Johnson, a sailor, forfeited $20 bond in police court on a charge of disorderly conduct resulting from a disturbance in a North Mechanic street cocktail lounge Wednesday night.

Two other men involved in the melee were fined $3 on charges of drunk and disorderly conduct. They were listed as Harold Miller, Oak street, and Charles Whitacre, North Mechanic street.

Claude Moore, 19 Putnam street, and his wife, Mrs. Catherine Moore, were released under bond of $200 each for the January term of circuit court after complaints were lodged against them by Mrs. Vivian Fertig before Magistrate Frank A. Perdue in trial magistrates court yesterday.

Moore was accused of threatening Mrs. Fertig and was released on a peace bond. Mrs. Moore, accused of assaulting and threatening Mrs. Fertig, also was released under bond.

pened to some navy meat and butter at Pearl Harbor. Chairman Mead (D-NY) said the testimony indicated there was a $500,000 black market.

4. The House shied away from a bill to protect secret military codes and messages. Some members complained it would hamper a Senate-House committee investigating Japan's punch at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Others said it would curb freedom of speech and the press.

5. This is more about atomic power.
A Senate committee learned from scientists that Japan was working on an atomic bomb. But it was a dud because:
Japanese scientists got the wrong answers.
American B-29s hit the right target—an experimental laboratory.
Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, told about that.

6. Senate and House committees heard more for-and-against arguments on an increase in the national minimum wage from forty to sixty-five cents an hour. Sen. Mead spoke for it. Representatives of Western Union and the trucking business said it would cost them more than they can afford.

7. The House Military committee—it was busy as a bee—okayed a bill that says the army should bring home for burial bodies of men who died overseas. It "Natives ask for it."

Final Food Lecture To Be Held Today

The last in a series of four lectures for all food handlers, owners and managers of local restaurants will be held today at 8 p. m. in the city hall auditorium.

"Safe Food for Good Health," the subject of the session, will be discussed by Maj. M. M. Miller, Richmond, Va., sanitarian for the United States Public Health Service; J. Byron Dowling, state sanitarian; Dr. Winter R. Prantz, acting city and county health officer; and L. E. Selman, representing the Bogel-Ritt Exterminating and Fumigating Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

Recommendations will be made during the lecture regarding the safe buying, safe preparation and safe serving of food, and methods of protecting it from contamination.

Dowling said yesterday that a true-false examination covering the four lectures will be given at the session tonight. All those who pass the examination with eighty per cent or better will receive certificates stating that they have completed the course satisfactorily.

The course is being held in connection with the current survey of eating and drinking places by the Cumberland Health Department.

of all the Nazis. He rose through the party's ranks to become one of Hitler's most powerful lieutenants. As leader of the German Labor Front he controlled ninety-five per cent of all the gainfully-employed persons in the Reich, probably 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 workers.

He edited two newspapers, one of which has been described as "the wildest, maddest anti-Semitic publication ever made use of the German language."
The Nazi leader was involved in many acts of violence and he was frequently imprisoned during the years the Nazi party rose to political power in Germany. But his efforts won him distinction in the party and in 1932 he became its organizational leader for the entire Reich. He was made head of the labor front in 1933.

In this capacity he wiped out all labor unions, brutally and ruthlessly. All union members except Jews were told they were automatically members of the new labor front and those who objected either were killed or thrown into concentration camps.

He created the Nazis' "strength through joy" movement and lectured the "Many Children League" on the "natural, healthy phenomenon of illegitimacy."

Indonesian Political

British motive, if any, might be, and they reply on that British tin and rubber from Malaya is likely to get a head start in reopening world markets over Indonesian products.

How much of this and similar talk has reached British ears is unknown, but one can surmise that one British answer would be that the British sent what they had available at the time.

On October 5 the London Daily Telegraph said:

"It would have been preferable if French and Dutch troops could have been sent to take over their respective territories, but since that was not possible, the duty has had to fall on British troops whose rule is strictly limited to two objectives: First, to accept the surrender of local Japanese, and secondly, to maintain law and order."

Those at home and abroad who make it their business to discover sinister motives in British policy have been as active as usual on those occasions.

Anyone who imagines that Britain enjoys the role of policeman in other people's territories is completely wide of the mark. It is a thankless task."

everywhere in the world to the Allied powers, to cease relations with foreign governments, and to recall her diplomatic and consular representatives from abroad.

This order came down from the joint chiefs of staff in Washington.

Attack Was "Great Success"

Differing with various other high-ranking Japanese who have had their say about the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor and have deplored it as a mistake, Adm. Osami Nagano, the man who gave the actual orders, asserted that it was an unexpectedly great success, was militarily sound, and "Japan would have been defeated earlier" if it had not been launched.

Nagano, former chief of the naval staff, was for the assault although many admirals thought it was too dangerous, he disclosed in an interview.

A declaration of war was to have preceded the strike by thirty minutes, but something went wrong and the declaration followed the attack, he said.

ment, and the provision of predetermined means of dealing with unavoidable disagreements will go far toward bringing about a new era of industrial harmony and progress."

Seven Topics Are Proposed

The seven topics proposed for discussion were:

1. "Genuine acceptance" by management of collective bargaining where workers want it.

2. "Genuine acceptance" by organized labor of the right and responsibilities of management to direct the operation of an enterprise.

3. Utilization of machinery of the National Labor Relations act and similar state statutes.

4. "Recognized and orderly procedure" in negotiating contracts, with provision for conciliation if talks are breaking down.

5. Inclusion of such provisions as these in agreements: (a) Procedure for adjustment of disputes and grievances during the life of a contract and in negotiating a succeeding contract; (b) no-strike, no lock-out clauses; (c) when contract renewal negotiations fail, early use of conciliation, mediation and possibly voluntary arbitration; (d) settlement of grievances at the level where they occur; (e) responsibility of both parties to live up to agreements; (f) control of members by unions and of officials and supervisory force by management in conforming with contracts.

6. Should the conciliation service be strengthened and given added support?

7. Lessening jurisdictional and inter-union disputes.

Landon Attacks Administration's Foreign Policy

LAWRENCE, Kas., Oct. 25 (AP)—Declaring no international security can be built on "quicksilver of vindictive, ruinous and imperialistic settlements that lack any constructive ideas," Alf M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee, sharply criticized the administration's foreign policy today.

He proposed, in its stead, a six-point program as a foundation for world peace.

In a speech prepared for delivery before the Kiwanis club, Landon said "we are seizing strategic bases in a speaky sort of way and then wondering why the world should look at us with cynicism and suspicion."

Americans Being "Doped"
"The race between Russia and the United States to obtain strategic bases is fooling no one but the American people—who are still being doped with soothing syrup that differences between ourselves and Russia are those of language and inexperience in foreign affairs.

"If Russia refuses the proffered hand of the peace-seeking nations, we must not shrink from the tragic fact that a new aggressor is on the prowl."

The former Kansas governor proposed these six points as the basis for world security:

1. Make the United States a sound financial mooring post "for the rest of the world to tie to by reversing our present unsound fiscal policies of borrowing and spending unlimited."

2. Reverse the German policies for which the United States is responsible. Put Germany on an economic, self-sustaining basis.

3. All nations abandon extra-territorial practices. "The United States should stand in the Far East as advocating in substance what we did in the Philippines where we set the model for colonial treatment and development of self-governing communities."

4. Insist on "honest and intelligent reasonable" application of the principles of the Atlantic Charter before we make any gifts. Follow for the most part Woodrow Wilson's fourteen principles for peace.

5. Seriously and thoroughly consider internationalization of the atomic bomb and of the hitherto key spots in the world.

6. If Russia refuses the "proffered hand of the peace-seeking nations, we must not shrink from the tragic fact that a new aggressor is on the prowl."

LISTEN WORLD!

—By Elsie Robinson
(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

Mrs. A. is one of these Absolutely Wonderful Women with a Heart of Gold. Everybody notices it. She even admits it herself—in a quiet, refined way of course. What's more, she practices what she preaches.

All her life she has slaved and sacrificed for her family and friends. There's nothing she won't do for anyone who's in trouble—even for perfect strangers. And she doesn't stop with ordinary neighborly acts like dropping in with custard and a book of funnies when little Jimmy's sick. She goes right ahead, working and worrying over you as if you were part of her own folks.

Giving you helpful little suggestions. Showing you, in the sweetest, most tactful manner, the blunders you've made and how much happier you'd be if you'd follow a new program, arrange things according to schedule, as she had done.

Yes, Mrs. A. is certainly a Shining Example. Sometimes, thinking of all the good she does, you feel a little awed, even envious. If only you could make yourself over and be like that instead of just messing along, flying into tempers, forgetting to mend Will's shirt or use that new cream on your nails. How heavenly, to lead a "Planned Life"—helping everyone, feeling so calm and sure and beloved.

But there—when you stop and think—is the queer part about it all. In spite of her Good Deeds, Mrs. A. doesn't seem particularly happy. Or popular. You'd think that the lucky people who have listened to her advice would flock around her in adoring herds—but they don't! To the contrary, they actually seem to avoid her. Some are downright disagreeable to her, act as if they resented her suggestions.

And you can see how terribly it hurts her. After all she has done for them, to be treated like a meddlesome old snooty—yes, it's certainly strange. Or is it?

Do we really do the other fellow such a big favor by trying to change and uplift him . . . and should he be grateful for our effort? Or has he the right to reject and resent such benevolent shoving-around?

Granted—the Other Fellow may be shallow and shiftless, an aimless dreamer and drifter who will pay plenty for his wastrel ways. And you honestly want to reform him. But suppose he doesn't wanna be reformed? Hasn't he an inalienable right to find the Truth he hard way as you have to reveal it to him on your more precise pattern?

And where do any of us get the guarantee that our private plan of salvation can serve or save the Other Fellow? Aren't mistakes often as necessary for human development as successes and as sacred a prerogative?

No, I'm not laying down any rules. Just asking. For it occurs to me occasionally that a meddling saint can be quite as harmful as a malicious sinner. And a heap more pesty to have around.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Polish Rebuilding Will Be a 15-Year Job

NEW YORK (AP)—The Polish Press Agency, reporting results of a survey by the Polish Ministry of Reconstruction, says fifteen years will be required for the rebuilding of Polish towns destroyed during the war.

It will take at least four years to restore the less devastated farm villages, Polpress says. More than 60,000 farms, with a prewar value of $61,000,000, were either seriously damaged or ruined completely in the province of Warsaw alone.

American-owned Plant in China Must Incorporate under Chinese Law

By JAMES D. WHITE
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25 (AP)—The Shanghai Power Company, said to operate the largest steam-powered plant in the world, must incorporate under Chinese law in 1946, even though it is American-owned. A new Chinese corporation law also requires that this particular type of company have a Chinese chairman.

This is just one of the changes which American and other foreign businessmen will face as they go back to China to resume business. Before the war they were responsible only to their own national laws, under the extraterritorial system which ended in 1943.

Shanghai reports say that today the foreign—including American—businessmen who are already there are "not too pessimistic" about their prospects. This is another way of saying they are not optimistic and have their doubts about being able to make money under Chinese law.

However, in the long view especially, the outlook is optimistic. No one knows better than the Chinese how much they need foreign business—capital, capital goods, export outlets, and so on—in order to rebuild their own economy from the ruins left by war. Before the war Shanghai was the focal point of all Chinese-foreign business, and there is every indication that it will resume that status—when and if that business revives.

Revival depends on the environment which the Chinese provide for business, and that environment must accommodate the foreigner too. The situation hardly can be cleared up until a definite understanding is arrived at through a Sino-American trade treaty, and this apparently must await clarification of Chinese law itself.

Chinese corporation law is just one phase affecting foreigners. The whole Chinese judicial system is quite different from ours. Late in 1944 the United States sent Judge Milton J. Helmick, former judge of the old United States court in China, to Chungking to make a survey of the Chinese legal system with Chinese judicial authorities.

Chinese Law Cited
Some of the main points to be explored were:

1. The Chinese court system is based on the European procurator principle where a defendant is considered guilty until he is proved innocent—just the reverse of the Anglo-Saxon idea.

2. Chinese law sometimes ignores foreigners completely, because it was drafted during the period of extraterritoriality when foreigners were beyond the reach of Chinese courts. There wasn't any law which said whether a foreigner could own land, for instance.

3. Chinese common law liability concepts are pretty rugged. The family of a Chinese who dies on your premises (even though you may operate a hospital), can have a pretty frightening case against you if it gets to court. A pedestrian who jaywalks often can extract a sizable sum from the automobile-owner who happens to hit him.

Such ideas gained acceptance in China at a time and under conditions when they were reasonable. In some cases conditions have changed and the law hasn't, and in those cases the unwary can get badly trimmed.

While individual American businessmen may be scared about all this, their uneasiness must be balanced against the friendly understanding of the problems involved which both American and Chinese officials have reached in nearly three years of exploring them together.

Allegany and LaSalle To Clash Tonight

LaSalle high school's Explorers will test Allegany high school's undefeated eleven when the teams meet in the opener of their two-game football series tonight at 8 o'clock in the Port Hill stadium.

The Campers, undefeated since early in the 1944 season, and tied once in five starts this season, will enter the game at full strength while the North Centre Street school will play minus the services of Quarterback Eddie Malloy and Fullback Bob Mattingly, according to Coach John J. Long.

Joe Dorsey May Play
The LaSalle mentor last evening said there is a possibility that Joe Dorsey, regular right end and the team's best kicker who was injured in the Port Hill game, may get into tonight's game, but Yates Borden, regular left tackle, is a doubtful starter because he has not shown up for practice this week due to sinus trouble.

Tommy Cloonan will be the quarterback with Nesbit and Carroll at the halves and either Kenneth Bassell or Tommy Dougherty in the injured Mattingly's fullback position.

Needs 13 Points To Tie
Trailing the idle Richard "Dick" White, of Fort Hill, the city's leading point scorer, Tommy Powers, AHS fullback, may be given an opportunity to move out in front in tonight's game. Powers needs thirteen points to catch White, the figures at the present time being 63 to 50. Tommy is good for at least two touchdowns a game.

Allegany has been installed as a heavy favorite to bag this one.

During half time intermission at tonight's game La. Comdr. William H. Geppert, detached from active duty in the United States Naval Reserve, will speak briefly over the public address system in connection with the observance of Navy day, which will be celebrated tomorrow. Ferndale Crosses Path of Unbeaten Bedford Bisons

Fisher's Team Seeks Fifth Straight Conference Win in Johnstown

Boasting of seven consecutive victories in as many starts, Bedford high school's Bisons remain as the only undefeated, untied and unscathed on scholastic football team in the tri-state area.

The Bisons, however, will face what looms as their most important test in the Western Pennsylvania Conference, when they do battle with the Ferndale Yellowjackets in the Point stadium, Johnstown, Pa., tonight.

Bedford is right at the top of the conference standings with four victories and no setbacks while Ferndale is not far in the rear with four wins and one defeat. If the Bisons come through with a triumph tonight through the conference season without a defeat look good as Shade Township will be the last opponent on the schedule of Coach Bruce Fisher's eleven.

The Western Pennsylvania Conference comprises thirty-six teams six of which are undefeated and untied, namely, Huntingdon, Bedford, DuBois, State College, Adams Township and Curwensville.

Allegany and Fort Hill are the other unbeaten teams in the tri-state area but both have played one tie game.

Records of the thirteen schools in this area are as follows:

Bedford	7	0	0	231	4	1,000

This will be football's last Saturday in the season's halfway mark for in addition to the teams mentioned above Michigan, Yale, Southern California and several others have important assignments to face. Upon just which the Upset Guillotine will fall is something no one will know until late tomorrow.

NAVY GIVEN SLIGHT EDGE
NAVY-PENNSYLVANIA. One of the major enterprises of the day, a month ago Navy was supposed to go unbeaten until the Army game. That supposition is no longer in the sure-thing division. So far Pennsylvania has been playing better football than Navy has and only a sharp jump in Navy play will carry her through. We give Pennsylvania just about an even chance to win this game with a slight edge to Navy.

ARMY-DUKE. Duke will uncover a brilliant back by the name of George Clark but Army still has Blanchard, Davis and a stalwart Army by a safe margin.

MINNESOTA-OHIO STATE. Ohio State, the Scarlet Scourge, will be much better than last week against Purdue, but Minnesota, with a passing attack added to her running game is the nominee.

ALABAMA-GEORGIA. Alabama beat L.S.U. 26 to 7 and L.S.U. slaughtered Georgia 32 to 0. With Trippi drawing another week for team play, Georgia will be a much improved squad. But Alabama, plus Gilmer and Mancha, looks to be not only the best team in the South, but one of the best in 1945 football.

LIONS PICKED OVER BROWN
COLUMBIA-BROWN. No team on the map has come as far from 1944 into 1945 as Columbia has. Lou Little has a team that slips you a thrill. The Lion is after his fifth meal and the Brown Bear happens to be in the road. Columbia again.

HOLY CROSS-COLGATE. Unbeaten Holy Cross will have one of her dizziest afternoons. Colgate, with a big line and a set of fast backs, can be dangerous at any given spot. But Holy Cross is the pick.

MICHIGAN-ILLINOIS. One of the closer games booked for the afternoon, Illinois has been good, but unlikely Michigan has too many good backs and isn't yet out of the Conference race. Michigan.

INDIANA-TULSA. Another engagement between unbeaten teams, although Indiana has been tied. This is a tough piece of steak to cut. Indiana.

LONGHORNS ARE FAVORED
TEXAS-RICE. Unwhipped Texas should keep rolling bowlward. The Longhorns look to be the best in the Lone Star dominion. Texas. GEORGIA TECH-AUBURN. Auburn beat Tulane a week ago but Georgia Tech is on her way forward—an improving team. Navy can tell you about that. Georgia Tech.

DARTMOUTH-SYRACUSE. Dartmouth, with Frost back, is a good football team. Something to handle. Dartmouth.

NOTRE DAME-IOWA. Iowa has been wrecked by Ohio State, Purdue and Indiana. Notre Dame is on her way to a big year. Notre Dame.

CORNELL-YALE. Both teams have been well bolstered since their last start. One of the better games of the day. Cornell in a close finish.

LSU-VANDERBILT. The squad that overran Georgia 52 to 0 is too strong for Vanderbilt. LSU.

MISSISSIPPI-ARKANSAS. Arkansas about due to win one. NEBRASKA-MISSOURI. Should be quite close. A nod to Missouri.

Purdue is Too Strong
PURDUE-NORTHWESTERN. At least a fair test for the Purdue Bollermakers. One of the day's main Big Nine meetings. The DeMoss arm, plus other factors, too much for Northwestern. Purdue.

PRINCETON-RUTGERS. The two that started all the trouble. Princeton.

S.M.U.-TULANE. A hard game but S.M.U. improvement should be enough to get by.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA-WASHINGTON. One of the major contests on the West Coast in the Rose Bowl scramble. Close to an even affair with U.S.C. favored.

VIRGINIA-VPI. VPI upset a good Maryland team last week but Virginia should remain unbeaten.

Maryland is picked over West Virginia. Clemson over South Carolina. NYU over Brooklyn. California over Nevada. UCLA over Oregon.

Monarchs' Owners Predict Robinson Will Burn Up Loop

Will Not Attempt To Stop Jackie from Playing at Montreal

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 25 (P)—Co-owners J. L. Wilkinson and T. Y. Baird, of the Kansas City Monarchs, Negro professional baseball club, said today in an interview with the Kansas City Star, they would in no way attempt to prevent Jackie Robinson, Monarch shortstop last season, from playing with the Brooklyn Dodgers' Montreal farm.

At the same time Wilkinson expressed displeasure in the manner in which Branch Rickey signed Robinson.

The co-owners said they were positive Robinson not only can make the grade in the International league, but will burn up the circuit.

The statement of Wilkinson and Baird followed a recent declaration by Baird that Branch Rickey's move in signing up Robinson will be appealed to Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

Wilkinson's side of the story follows: "We have been out some expense in training players such as Robinson. We have a league, our players have contracts. The Negro professional league with its eastern and western divisions has been well run. We respect these contracts among ourselves. And these contracts virtually are the same as those used in organized ball.

"It can be understood we could not go to the expense of training players until they become capable of filling jobs in organized ball and then have them taken away as ruthlessly as this has been done.

"We were not even given the courtesy by Rickey of notifying us. "We repeat—we want Brooklyn to have Robinson. When Rickey says Jackie is the only one he has found who can play Double A ball we'll give him the names of at least fifty Negro players good enough to make teams in the International or American Association. Several we believe are good enough to play in the big leagues."

Owls To Play Pitt
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25 (P)—Coach Ray Morrison announced today that a squad of 37 Temple university football players will leave tomorrow afternoon for Pittsburgh where the Owls will tangle with the Pitt Panthers Saturday afternoon.

Auckland, New Zealand, is to build a hospital exclusively for women, which will have a post-graduate school in obstetrics and gynecology.

SIGNED BY DODGERS

FIRST NEGRO in baseball history to be given a player's contract in organized baseball, Jackie Robinson, above, former U. C. L. A. football and track star, has been signed by the Brooklyn Dodgers to play with their Montreal club of the International league. Robinson, a lieutenant in the U. S. Army, played with the Kansas City Monarchs, a Negro team, and hit 340.

The co-owners said they were positive Robinson not only can make the grade in the International league, but will burn up the circuit.

The statement of Wilkinson and Baird followed a recent declaration by Baird that Branch Rickey's move in signing up Robinson will be appealed to Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

Hopkins Booters Win
BALTIMORE, Oct. 25 (P)—Johns Hopkins university won its second straight soccer victory today, blanking the University of Delaware booters, 3-0.

Walt Potter scored two goals for the victors. Rodrigo Nunez from Costa Rica took a well-directed pass from Charles Huang, of China, to ring out the Blue Jays' other tally.

Ziler Will Play At Fullback Post In Ridgeley Game

'Zeke's' Showing Pleas Fort Hill Coach; Clay To Play Right End

James "Zeke" Ziler, who has been playing a wing position since current campaign opened, will be the fullback post when Fort Hill Sentinels play Ridgeley high school Blackhaws Saturday night in Fort Hill stadium.

"Ziler has looked great in workouts and I'm certain he's going to be one of the best looking backs on the squad when we turn him loose," Henry declared last evening. "How that boy can run."

Henry was forced to dig up a other fullback when Don Smith, who passed out of the picture with a Charley horse. Sensabaugh moved in at the fullback post after Richard "Dick" White, the city's leading scorer, joined the active list after suffering a broken bone in his wrist.

Clay To Replace Ziler
"I'm not worried about weakening the line by moving Ziler to fullback because Richard Clay, senior, who has been on the squad three years is a capable replacement," Henry asserted.

Working with Ziler in the backfield will be Al Shaffer, John Brown and Medford Nicholson.

If he has an opportunity to so, Henry plans to use a backfield composed of Ninth graders against Ridgeley. The sparkplug of the quartet is Catlett, a fullback, who shows much promise.

White Works Out
White, who was injured in the LaSalle game, has been working with the squad this week but did not handle the ball due to an injured wrist. Eddie Siebert expects to remove the cast from his injured ankle next Wednesday.

Officials for tomorrow night game will be "Bobby" Cavanaugh, referee; Ed Milbrada, umpire; Bill Spangler, head linesman. The latter is reported to have recovered sufficiently from the injury he suffered in the Ridgeley-Monroeville game when he fell and twisted his knee.

PACKERS SET RECORD
The Packers established a new league record for penalties when they were docked 184 yards in the 38-14 triumph over the Boston Braves last Sunday. That broke the old record of 170 yards, set by Brooklyn against the Packers September 17 last year and tied the Bears against Philadelphia November 26.

Jack Benny and his crew will be putting on the show for Danny Kaye of CBS at 10:30.

In view of approaching Navy day, Arthur Godfrey figures it should

Paul Lavalle will be celebrating his first anniversary as conductor of the Friday night at 8 concert on NBC. Bob Burns is to drop around for Ginny Simms' CBS show at 7:30. "Great Novels" of NBC at 11:30 turn next to "Huckleberry Finn," giving the first of four installments.

In Memoriam

Ask me do I miss him,
The gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness I recall,
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
We miss him now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss him more.
His loving smile and gentle face,
No one can fill his vacant place.

Loving daughter,
MRS. ETHEL CRITES,
formerly of Cumberland
10-25-11-T

In loving memory of my husband, Chester L. Stouffer, who passed away two years ago Oct. 26, 1943.
More and more each day I miss him,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within my heart concealed.

Sadly missed by his wife,
Mrs. Alice Stouffer,
10-26-11-T

In loving memory of Pvt. Frank W. Castel, Bayard, W. Va., who was killed in action in France, Oct. 26, 1944.

Though you went to fight the battle,
For our freedoms here at home,
You will never be forgotten,
By the ones you left alone.
Come are your footsteps,
Gone is your smile,
And all those happy days,
That made life worthwhile.
On we long for you dear brother,
And to see your happy smile,
But we know we'll meet in Heaven,
When we've gone that long last mile.

Sadly missed by Mother, Sisters and Brothers,

Final Details Are Worked Out For Forum Here

Flood Control Will Be Stressed at Conserva- tion Meeting Nov. 3

Final details for the Conservation Forum to be held in Fort Hill high school auditorium Saturday Nov. 3 were made by committee chairman, and leaders in sponsoring the forum, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the chamber of commerce offices.

Charles J. Bruce, general chairman of the executive committee, and O. J. Hale, chairman of the program committee, reported that everything is in readiness for the all-day program which will begin at 9:30 a. m. and close at 4:30 p. m. Tasker G. Lowndes, chairman of the finance committee, made a report on contributions to defray expenses of the forum.

Outstanding Speakers Coming

Some of the outstanding men in various fields of conservation have accepted invitations to make addresses, and Governor Herbert R. O'Connor, will be here to open the afternoon session at 1:15 o'clock. Four phases of conservation will be discussed—soil conservation, forestry conservation, mineral conservation, and wildlife conservation, as well as flood control for Cumberland and Ridgeley.

Nationally known speakers who will appear on the day's program are Dr. Hugh H. Bennett, chief of the United States Soil Conservation Service, G. Harris Collinsworth, chief forester, National Lumber Manufacturers Association; William E. Wrather, director United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior; Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, director, United States Fish and Wildlife Service, and Dr. Abel Wolman, professor of sanitary engineering, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and vice chairman of the Natural Resources Board of the United States.

The forum is being sponsored by the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and a number of other organizations, in Allegany and Garrett counties as well as several state departments. The idea back of the forum is to impress upon the people of Allegany and Garrett counties the urgent need of conservation of soil, minerals, forests, and wildlife. The forum is for all the citizens of Western Maryland, and while soil conservation will have a prominent part on the program, the forum is for both rural and city residents.

Will Discuss Flood Control

While many Cumberlanders will be interested in all phases of the program, it is certain that all citizens of Cumberland, Ridgeley, and nearby communities are interested in flood control which has been given a prominent place on the afternoon program.

Moving pictures will be shown of the flood control model for Cumberland and Ridgeley. W. Va., which was inspected some months ago at Vicksburg, Miss., by the mayor, members of the council, and other Cumberland citizens. Col. John M. Johnson, district engineer of the army engineer's office, Washington, D. C., will appear on the program and explain various details of the flood control plan. Col. Johnson will speak at 1:35 p. m. and forum sponsors are anxious that as many Cumberlanders as possible can attend the afternoon session, even if they can't be present all day.

Arrangements are being made by Charles L. Kopp, superintendent of Allegany county schools, who is chairman of the arrangements committee, to handle a crowd of 1,600 persons. Luncheon will be served in Fort Hill cafeteria.

The Allegany-Garrett County Sportsmen's Association has arranged for a wildlife exhibit and there will also be other exhibits.

Members of the forum committee will outline the program next week at meetings of the Rotary, Lions, and Kiwanis Clubs, as well as various other organizations in the county.

"The New China" Is This Country's Best Friend, Yi Po Kung States

"I believe that the new China is really the best friend of the States and the States is also the best friend of China," Yi Po Kung said yesterday in addressing the regular luncheon meeting of the Cumberland Kiwanis club at Central YMCA.

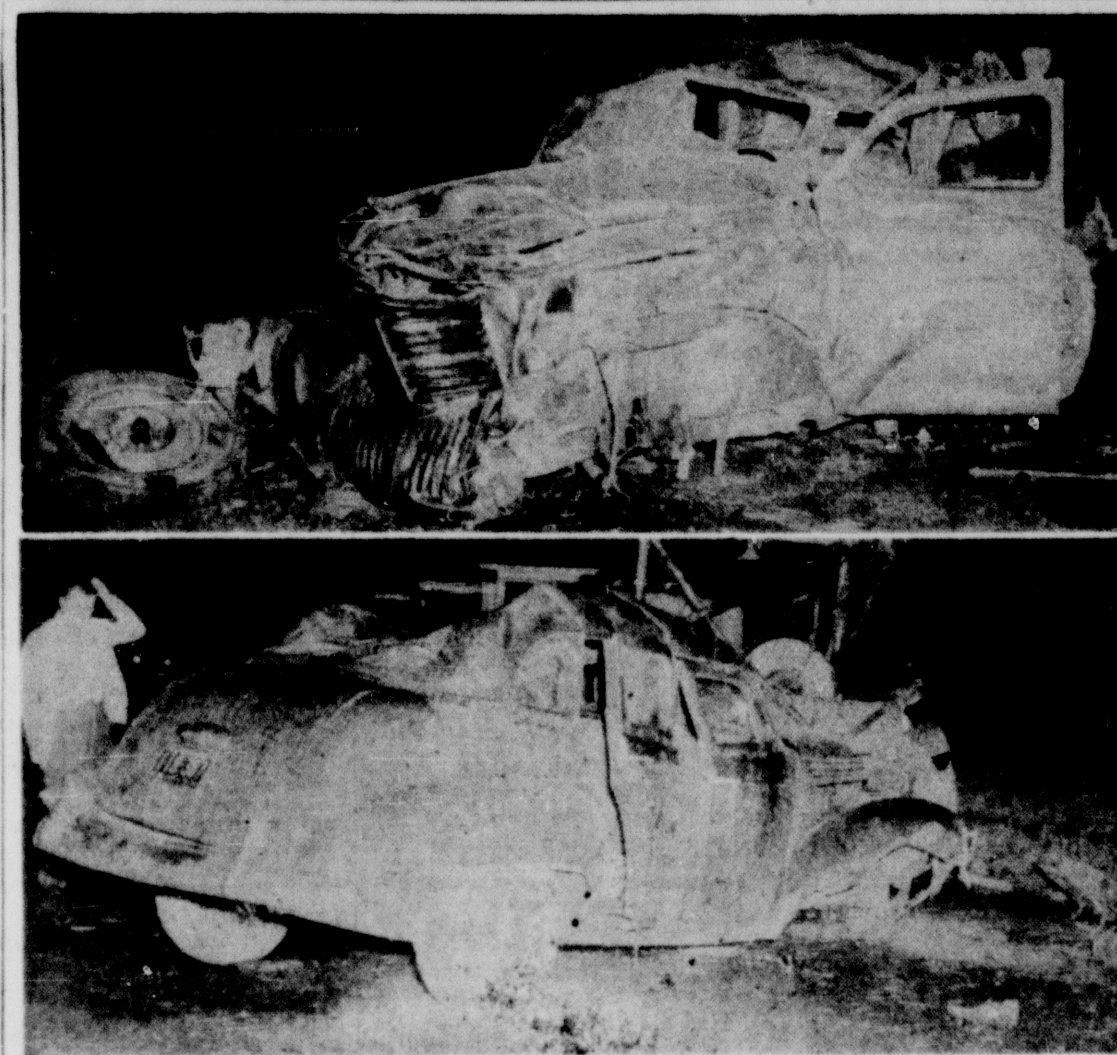

Kung is one of 1,400 graduate engineers sent to the United States by China to study American engineering methods. He is studying problems in road construction in Western Maryland.

Speaking on the subject, "The New China," Kung said that co-operation between the United States and China will be a great help toward maintaining world peace.

Unification Necessary
He stated that unification is the first and foremost problem of national reconstruction in his country, adding that industrialization will enrich China and education will add to its strength.

Before 1928, Kung said, militarists and politicians waged many civil wars in China, but after that time the country became a unified and democratic nation with the establishment of the national government in Nanking under the leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The Chinese Communist party, under the support of Russian Communists, has grown up and given a lot of trouble to the national government," Kung said. "All Chinese people consider that the Communist party and its military forces are the only obstacle to the unification of China today."

Lt. James E. Van, who investigated with Officers C. C. Roby, Fred O. Daum and L. A. Williams, said Wratford posted $10 bond for a hearing in police court Monday morning on a charge of careless driving.

The police officer added the car was evidently traveling toward the single at a terrific rate of speed when the accident occurred. The car, a Graham sedan, was a total wreck and a local wrecker had to make two trips to haul away the wreckage.

Prisoner of War Camp To Remain Open Indefinitely

Contract Can Be Terminated in Forty-eight Hours, Fulton Says

The German prisoner of war camp located in Green Ridge state forest will remain open for an indefinite period, according to word received yesterday by Capt. Tom Simon, camp commander, from Third Service command headquarters, Baltimore.

Simon stated that "nothing was said" about when the camp will close and he added that he thinks it will remain open at least until the first of the coming year.

The announcement came for the time being at least, in view of the fact that the last several months as to disposition of the camp. There had been reports that the camp would close as of November 1.

Until a decision is reached to close the camp, prisoners will continue working with orchardists of the Hancock Fruitgrowers Association and the Maryland State Department of Forests and Parks, Simon said.

Termination Notice Shortened

Stanley Fulton, of the fruitgrowers association, said the new contract with the army whereby the prisoners are worked in the orchards differs in only one respect from past contracts.

The new contract can be terminated in forty-eight hours, Fulton said, while the old contract had a ten-day termination clause.

When transportation to Germany is available for the prisoners, the prisoners must be available for the transportation, Fulton said, terming the Green Ridge camp "sort of an embarkation camp for PWs."

Capt. Simon pointed out that the movement of prisoners back to Germany has been "accelerated," and he added, "We don't have as many now as we did a year ago." There were 240 prisoners at the camp a year ago.

Fifty-fifty Basis

Prisoners at the camp now are working about on a fifty-fifty basis in orchard work for the state, according to Capt. Simon.

He said the orchardists could not have harvested their apple crop this year if it had not been for the help of the prisoners, and Fulton said, "Capt. Simon is exactly right."

He thought the crop this year was short, growers would have had difficulty getting help had it not been for the PW labor, Fulton explained. He added that "they help immensely, even with a short crop," and said that at the present time they are engaged in pruning trees, removing unprofitable trees and preparing for next year.

Fulton also outlined the procedure by which a certification of need for PW labor was obtained from the War Manpower Commission.

Applied to Kaylor

Growers within the association applied to the association for help, he explained, after which the association informed Joseph Kaylor, state forester, of the need and Kaylor in turn applied to the WMCC for the certification.

Fulton said he was informed the manpower commission felt that the forestry work of the prisoners was not essential and held up the certification until an appeal was presented by Paul Nystrom, of the University of Maryland extension service.

However, Fulton said, had it not been for Kaylor "there might have been any PWs here at all."

Building Permit Issued by Rizer To J. L. Messick

$4,500 Addition Planned on Frederick Street for Cold Storage

A permit to build an addition to 355 Frederick street to the present building at 357 Frederick street for an office and cold storage plant was granted in the city engineer's office yesterday to James L. Messick, trading as the Co-operative Ice and Fuel Company.

Last June 14 Messick applied for a permit to occupy the premises at 357 Frederick street and the adjoining lot, 355 Frederick street, for an ice plant and cold storage plant. The application was denied by Rizer on the ground that the two lots are located in a Residential "B" zoning district.

Messick appealed Rizer's decision to the board of zoning appeals which upheld the city engineer's decision against Messick June 22. At the hearing, a protest against the issuance of the occupancy permit was exhibited, signed by eight residents of the Frederick street area.

Messick then appealed to the circuit court, pointing out that the Co-operative Ice and Fuel Company itself was then located at 361 Frederick street in the same residential zone.

On July 26, Chief Judge William A. Huster and Associate Judge Walter C. Capper reversed the board's decision and ordered Rizer to approve the occupancy permit which was granted to Messick August 30.

In his application for a building permit, which was granted yesterday, Messick stated that the proposed addition will be one story high and will measure about twenty-three by 100 feet, with a concrete foundation, concrete block walls and built-up roofing.

Construction work, estimated at cost $4,500, will be done by Allen Sell, with plans furnished by the Prick Company, Waynesboro, Pa.

Other Permits Issued

Three other building permits were also granted by the city engineer yesterday.

Frederick R. Beck, 411 Wenden drive, was granted a permit to build a garage at the rear of his lot. The building, estimated to cost $75, will be one story high, measuring ten by twenty feet. The foundation will be of posts, with frame walls and a slate roof. Construction work will be done by the owner.

John S. Cook, representing J. H. Holzshu Company, was granted a permit to build a one-story addition to the rear of the Golden Gate tea room, 17 South Centre street, to be used for refrigeration storage. The addition, which will measure thirteen by fifteen feet, will have a concrete block foundation and walls, and a concrete roof. Construction, estimated to cost $500, will be done by Cook.

H. Barnhart, 411 Grand avenue, was granted a permit to build a one-story concrete block garage at the rear of his property at 17 Gleason street. The building, which will measure eighteen by twenty feet, will cost an estimated $200. F. P. Montgomery is the contractor.

Strike Planned Sunday

The action was taken after the union declared it would disregard plans for a strike vote to be taken here November 15 and stop work Sunday unless the wage demands were met.

Stutzman, in his telegram Wednesday to the department of Labor, pointed out that the thirty-day "cooling off" period would end Sunday and that the union intended to proceed with its plans.

The local labor official said he would meet this morning at 10 o'clock with company representatives and Commissioner James A. Holden of the conciliation service in an attempt to reach an agreement on the issues but added he had no great hopes for the conference.

A spokesman for the companies declared further increases are impossible since the cost of materials involved in the dispute operated in the red during the first quarter of 1945.

The strike of Baltimore drivers has not as yet affected this area but Stutzman said he had notified operators that drivers of the Winchester area would be taken off the road if operators continue to re-route southern traffic by way of Winchester to avoid the strike-blocked area.

32 Children Attend Halloween Party Given by Volunteers of America

The Volunteers of America had a Halloween costume party last night at their headquarters at 153 North Mechanic street and thirty-two children attended.

The hosts, Adjutant Paul R. Mullenix and his wife, Adjutant Grace Mullenix, falling right into the spirit of the affair, put on nightgowns over their regular clothing. Mrs. Mullenix also had on what appeared to be a sleeping cap.

A reporter who entered the recreation room was confronted by a pretty tableau consisting of Mrs. Mullenix in the center of a cluster of lively children. Overhead, was a plaque which read "Jesus Cares."

Adjutant Mullenix, who will soon be a major, laughingly explained that the various costumes were quite impromptu and invited the reporter upstairs to meet her husband.

Mr. Mullenix turned out to be a kindly person of robust girth who looked rather like a white Father Divine in his nightclothes. He laughed heartily and said it had been quite a party.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mullenix are greatly interested in the fifth anniversary convention of the Volunteers of America to be held next March in New York. They said hotel reservations had already been made and that they intended to be there.
